

iQNewsCenter Website

1. Logging On

After subscribing to iQNewsCenter service, you can enter a username and password in the Subscriber's Corner section to log on to the iQNewscenter system. As an option, you may select "sign me in automatically" for your username to be saved on the computer.

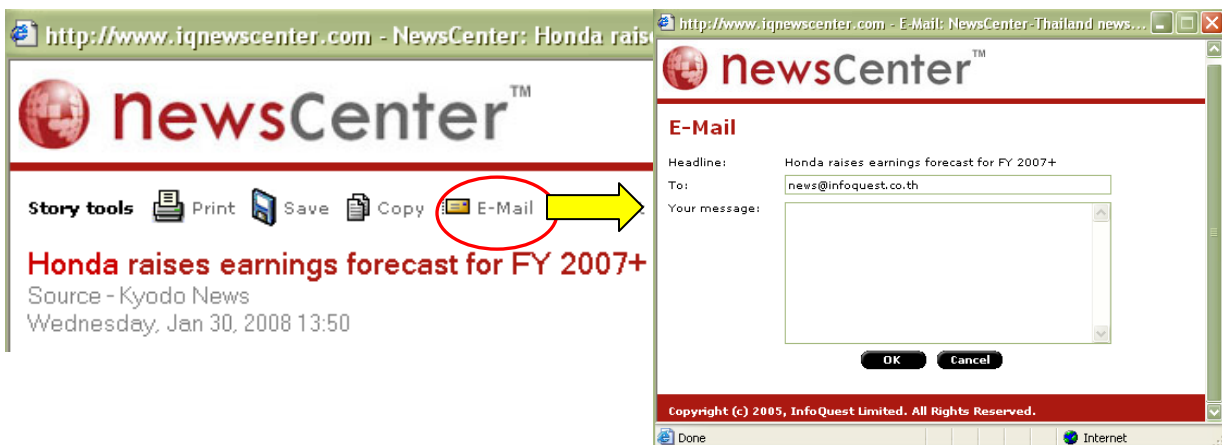

After logging on, iQNewsCenter will show headlines of news from the most current to the oldest. There are many ways for you to search for news.

2. Double click the news headline to read full story.

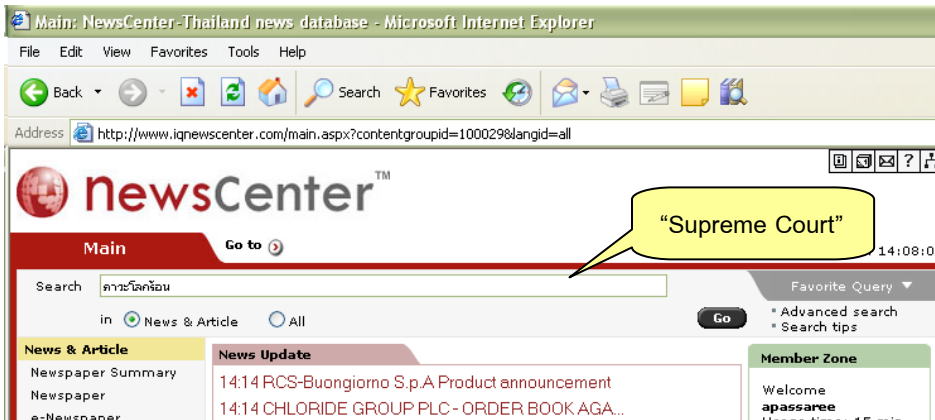

3. There are many export functions the story i.e. to print, to save, to copy, to send by email or export to MS Word.

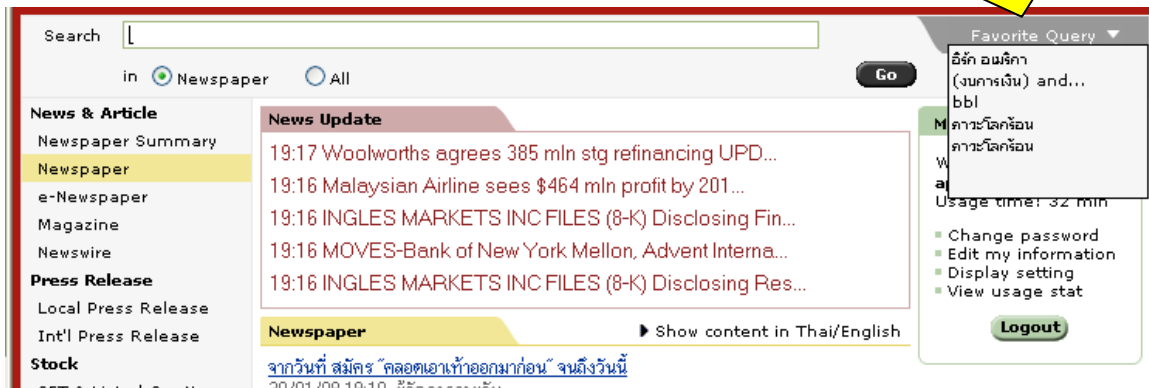

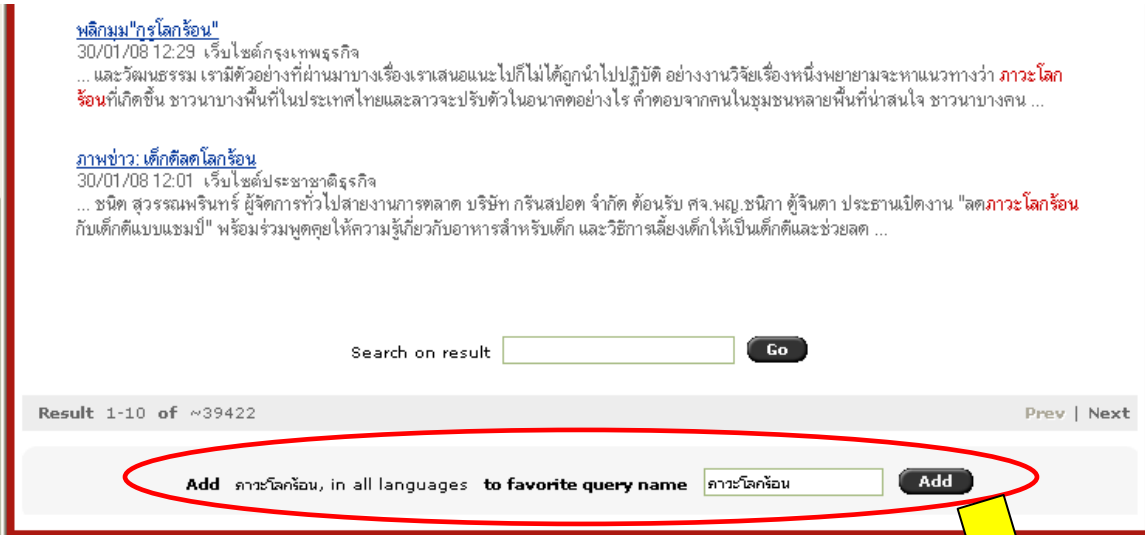

4. How to Query?

By typing the keyword or phrase into the Query Input Box. The following conjunctions can be used to separate keywords or phrases: "AND" "OR" "AND NOT".

5. How to add Favorite Query?

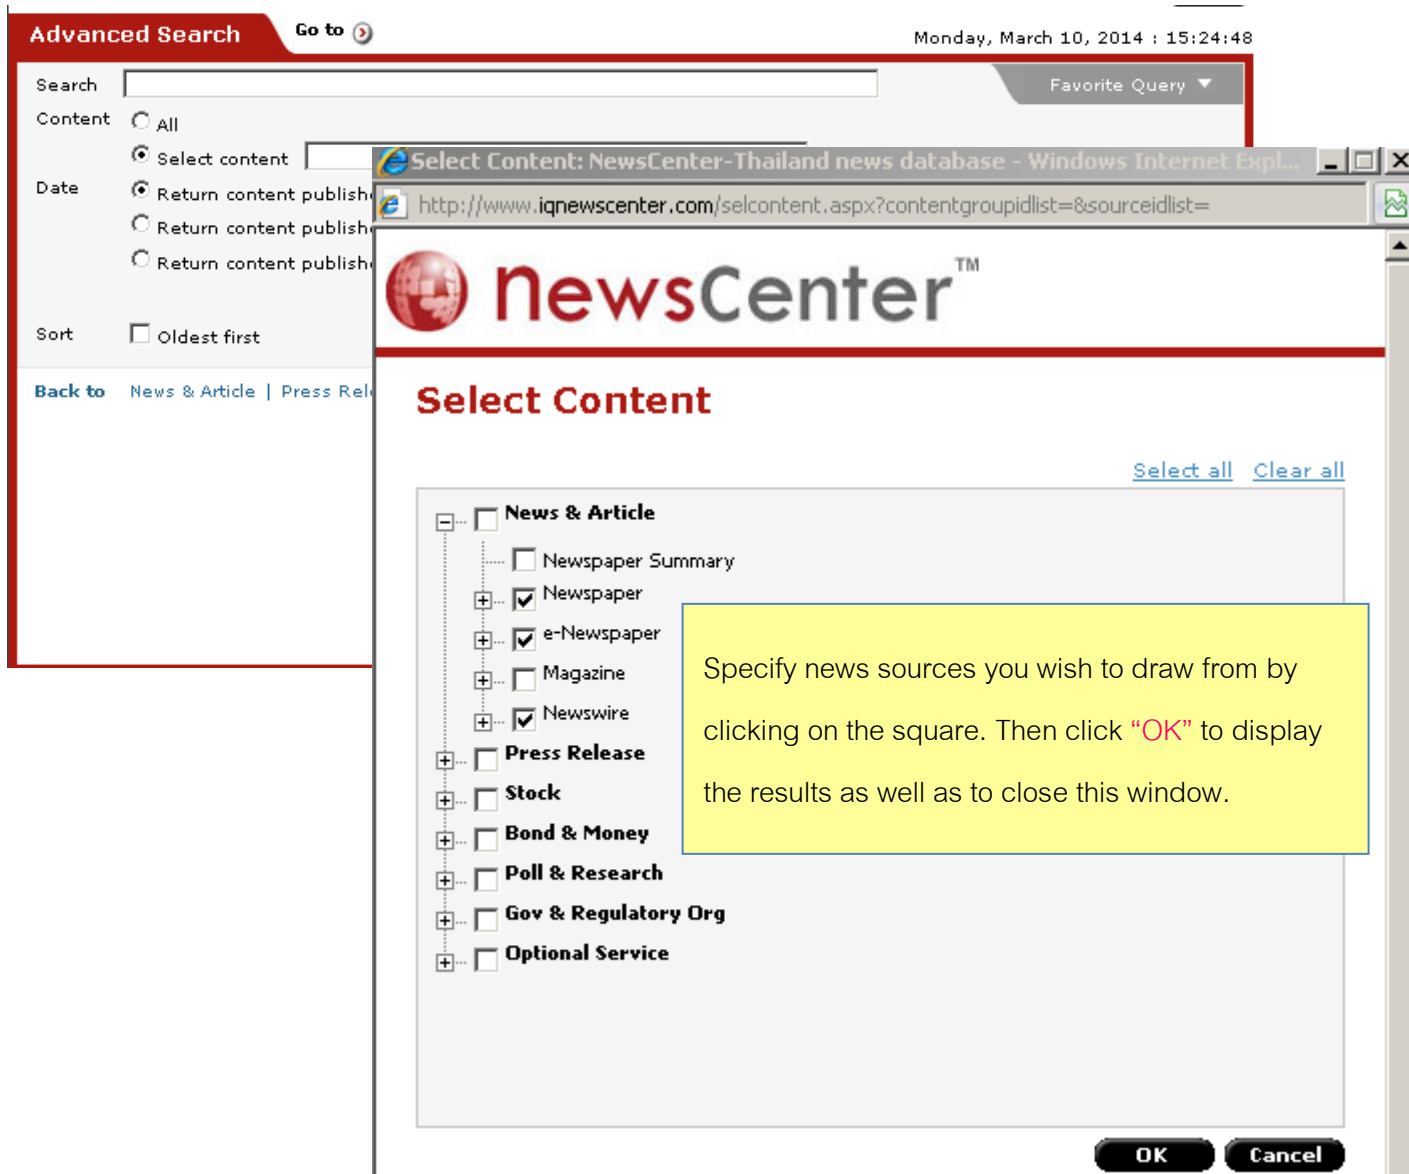

When you search for news by typing your required keywords in the Search Box then click the "Search" button for the result to come up and you are would like such search keywords for future use, you can click "Add" to save the keywords in Favorite Query.

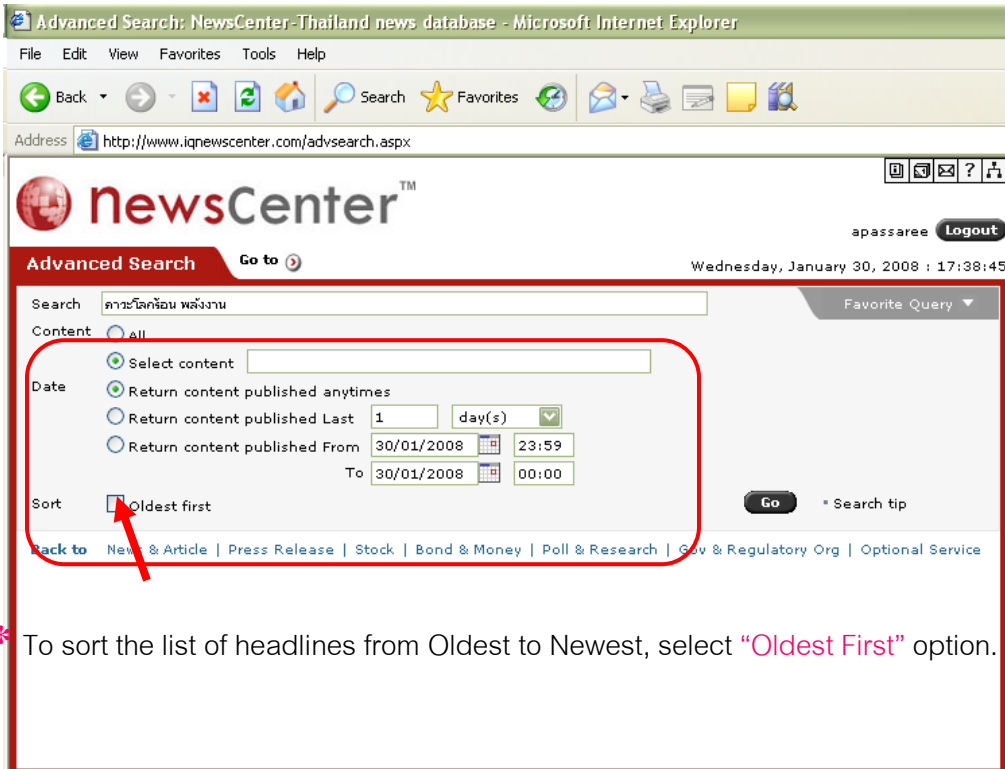

6. How to specify News Sources?

The Content Option window will appear. Click on “Select content”

Click on "Return content" to set date, month or year from the built-in calendar.

* To sort the list of headlines from Oldest to Newest, select "Oldest First" option.

7. Logout

