5. Once successfully renewed, the status will change to "Renewed," and a new due date will be displayed.

The screenshot shows a notification at the top: 'A tale of two cities /...' was renewed. Due: 12/03/2026, 23:59. Below this, the 'Loans' section is visible. It includes a dropdown for 'Active loans', a 'Renew all' button, and a 'Sort by' menu set to 'Due date - newest'. A list of loans is shown, with the first item being 'A tale of two cities / by Charles Dickens'. The due date is listed as 'Due: 12/03/2026, 23:59' and the status is 'Renewed'.

- Not Renewable =
- ✗ Renewals are only available from 1 day before the due date.
 - ✗ This item has been requested by another user. You must return the book to the library.
 - ✗ You have reached the maximum renewal limit (3 times the original loan period).
The book must be returned to the library.

*Important Terms & Conditions for Self renew.

- Items can only be renewed if there are no active hold requests (reservations) from other users.
- You can renew items starting one day before the due date up until the actual due date.
- Overdue Renewals & Fines:
 - You can still renew items if they are overdue, provided your total outstanding fine does not exceed 100 THB.
 - If your fines exceed 100 THB, online renewal will be blocked. You must contact the library to settle the balance first.
- Renewal Limits:
 - While there is no limit on the number of times you click renew, there is a Maximum Renewal Date.
 - The maximum loan period (including the initial loan and all renewals) is three times the original loan duration.
 - Example: If undergraduate students have a 10-day loan period, they can keep the book for a maximum of 40 days total. After this point, the book must be returned to the library before it can be borrowed again.
- Membership Expiry: You cannot renew items if your library membership has expired. Items can only be borrowed until your membership end date.
