The image shows the Scite_ sign-up form. It has a header with the Scite_ logo. Below the logo are two buttons: 'Log in' and 'Sign up'. The 'Sign up' button is highlighted with a red box and a red circle with the number '1'. Below the buttons are two input fields: 'Name' with the placeholder 'Enter your name' and 'Email' with the placeholder 'name@example.com'. Below the email field is a blue 'Next' button. Below the 'Next' button is a red box containing a Google logo and the text 'Sign up with Google', which is also highlighted with a red circle with the number '2'. Below this is a button labeled 'Other sign in options'. At the bottom, there is a link: 'By continuing, you agree to the Terms and Privacy Policy.'

The image shows the Scite_ website interface. On the left is a sidebar with the Scite_ logo, a search icon, and a list of items: 'Assistant', 'Search', 'Collections' (marked with a 'NEW' tag), 'MCP', and 'More'. Below this is a 'New Chat' button and a 'RECENT' section with a dropdown arrow. The main content area has a header with a 'Try our MCP' button. Below this is a section titled 'What are you researching?' with a subtext: 'Your answers draw from 280M+ full-text articles, including paywalled sources other AI tools can't access.' There is a large input field with the placeholder 'Ask a question or paste a claim to fact-check...'. Below the input field is a 'Table Mode' checkbox and three buttons: a plus sign, a globe icon, and a right arrow. Below the input field is a section titled 'Try one of these' with a refresh icon. There are three example prompts: 'Write a short literature review on the health effects of urban green spaces, with citations.', 'Find the original paper behind the Technology Acceptance Model.', and 'Find peer-reviewed studies on microplastics in drinking water from the last five years.'
